

Urgent Negotiations Update

A meeting has been scheduled for today between your union representatives and Stanwell Corporate Office management to see if 'in principle' agreement can be reached in relation to your replacement Collective Agreement.

The outstanding issues that remain to be negotiated include:

- Wages
- A new Classification Structure
- On-Call Allowance
- Higher Duties
- Attachment of the Award to the Agreement

Your union representatives have been negotiating with Stanwell Corporation management for many months in an effort to reach agreement on your replacement Stanwell Corporation Limited Corporation Offices Certified Agreement 2008. This Agreement expired in October 2011.

We will again be endeavouring to gain a satisfactory outcome for our members at today's meeting with an update on the outcome of this meeting to be provided to members in a later bulletin.

If you require further information in relation to these negotiations, please contact your workplace Delegate or phone the union office on 1800 177 244 or alternatively email: members@together.org.au
